HISTORY

Cyprus is a small island with a long history and a rich culture that spans 10,000 years, making it one of the oldest civilisations in the Mediterranean. The island's unique geographic position has played an important part in its turbulent past since antiquity. Its Prehistoric Age inhabitants were joined 3500 years ago by the Mycenaean Greeks, who introduced and established their civilisation, thus permanently instilling the island's Greek roots. Many other cultures followed thereafter, including Phoenicians, Assyrians, Egyptians, Romans, Franks, Venetians, Ottomans and British have created a mosaic of different cultures and periods.

CULTURE

Hundreds of historical monuments, art galleries and theatrical performances are ready to unravel the long cultural and historical character of the island.

Local and foreign visitors should not miss the unique theatrical or musical performances given in many villages, at outdoor areas in picturesque landscapes, offering an alternative enjoyable experience.

ART

Visitors should also take a look at the numerous creative exhibitions of photographs or paintings organized over the year in many cities and villages across the island.

RELIGION

An ethereal and blessed land, Cyprus's religious roots are both sacred and humbling, as evidenced by the impressive number of monuments of religious devotion that tell the story of the island's path to Christianity and its deep faith, from inception to the present day.

Discover the churches, chapels and monasteries of the island, and immerse yourself in their journey of faith, history and culture. Through their unique structures; the biblical stories told in ancient icons and frescos; rich Ecclesiastical museums, and a Byzantine treasure trove of 10 painted mountain churches so religiously priceless that they are part of the UNESCO World Heritage List.

CUISINE

The ritual of sharing good, fresh local cuisine is an important part of the island's culture, and is intrinsically linked with every social event, from family gatherings and special occasions to religious festivals... each marked with its own distinct delicacies and recipes.

And it is no secret that the 'Mediterranean diet' is considered to be of the healthiest, thanks to its abundance of heart-healthy olive oil, pulses, lean meat, local herbs and freshly grown fruits and vegetables. Add to this the favourable climate - that gives the fresh produce its intense flavour - and a celebration around every corner, complete with special treats, and you will find a big gastronomic adventure awaits on this tiny island!

WINE

The island has a long-standing tradition of winemaking that dates back to Ancient Greek, Roman and Egyptian times. The grape varieties of the island are some of the oldest in the world, with the sweet dessert wine of Commandaria (Commandaria) remaining the oldest named wine still in production.

Wine connoisseurs will be pleased to know that many of the island's wineries and wine-producing villages and monasteries are open for tours and tasting of their 'nectar of the Gods', whilst the annual Lemesos Wine Festival is a ten-day celebration of wine and merriment, held at the end of August/beginning of September.

LAND ACTIVITIES

Training hard doesn't mean having to train in harsh conditions, and there is no better motivator than practising and preparing for the sport you love on an island where the pleasant climate combines with beautiful Mediterranean surroundings - and first-rate amenities - to inspire success for the coming season.

From floodlit, grass pitches and modern arenas; heated swimming pools and fully-equipped sports centres; high-tech ranges and trails or tracks; progressive gyms and challenging natural terrain... you will find collectives of cyclists, swimmers, runners, gymnasts, multi-discipline athletes, footballers, and tennis and volleyball players working hard...

SEA ACTIVITIES

Few feelings can compare to that of sinking your toes into warm sand... of the sun kissing your skin, and your senses taking in the fresh, salty breeze and the endless views of glittering blue waters.

Take a stroll to a backdrop of sea and bobbing boats at one of the quaint piers, marinas and harbours.... try your hand at reeling in the 'catch of the day' on a fishing trip, or discover the coves and caves of the different coastal areas on a boat trip.

For the more daring visitor, the island's ideal wind and water conditions open up endless possibilities for exhilarating sports such as windsurfing, sailing and kitesurfing.

SPORTS

Cyprus is known for holding various important sports events, which are recognized all over the world.

Perfect climate conditions, together with proper accommodation options and services make Cyprus an excellent country to organize sports events, as well as a base for professional training. One of the biggest events in Cyprus - International Limassol Marathon, fully accredited by AIMS, is a flat course which follows the Mediterranean coastline. From the centre of the city, along the beachfront, to the ruins of the ancient Royal city of Amathus, and back to the city. 42.195 kilometres. 26.2188 miles. 26.2188 smiles.

WILDLIFE

30 mammal species, 25 amphibian and reptile species, 370 bird species, 250 fish species and about 6000 insects species have been reported in Cyprus until now.

flora and a diverse fauna albeit with relatively few mammals. Like most modern countries, the natural habitats in Cyprus have been steadily disappearing, currently retaining only 20% of its original habitat due to rapid urbanization, usage of forests for commercial purposes, tourism and various other reasons. One of the unique features of Cyprus' habitats is the wild and sharp differences in elevations and habitats in different parts of the island as well as different climate conditions, all of which supply a diverse habitat for a unique array of fauna and flora.

PEOPLE

Cypriot hospitality is legendary. More than just a friendly smile and a “Yah sou”, Cypriots have a warm and loving nature that really impresses upon visitors every time they come to Cyprus, no matter what their race or creed. In shops, tavernas, cafes and bars the atmosphere is relaxed and welcoming. Much of the population speaks English, even if at times it is a little broken, and they will do their utmost to help you no matter what the situation.
